CONSTITUTION

Adopted: January 22, 2008

Original Constitution adopted: 11-11-97
Amended: 05-19-99

WILLIAM PATERSON FEDERATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSIONALS
LOCAL NO. 1796, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF TEACHERS, AFL-CIO

ARTICLE I - Name

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the William Paterson Federation of University Professionals, Local No. 1796.

Section 2. Hereinafter this organization shall be referred to as the Union.

ARTICLE II - Purpose

The purpose of this organization shall be:

Section 1. To bring associations of university teaching faculty, librarian faculty, and professional staff; full-time, one-half time or greater, and adjunct faculty, into relations of mutual assistance and cooperation.

Section 2. To advance the professional interests and working conditions of university teaching faculty, librarian faculty, and professional staff, in such areas as:

A. Academic freedom for teaching faculty, librarian faculty, professional staff, and students.

B. Individual faculty's rights, faculty's right to choose textbooks in accordance with their department policy.

C. A workload in terms of hours, numbers of preparations, curricular duties, and extracurricular responsibilities which are commensurate with standards necessary for the attainment of high quality education.

D. Provision of adequate working conditions, such as office space, secretarial service, library/research facilities, parking, etc.

E. Compensation that will attract and retain competent unit members and which will protect academic freedom and employment security.

F. Tenure rights which will protect academic freedom and employment security.

G. Defense of the professional and contractual rights of members against arbitrary and unfair decisions of the employer.

H. Adequate sabbatical, sick, personal, terminal, and emergency leaves.

ARTICLE II – Purpose

Section 2. (continued)

- I. Teaching faculty, librarian faculty, and professional staff participation in policy-making, in all areas of the university.
- J. Recognition of the teaching faculty, librarian faculty, professional staff; full-time, one half-time or greater, and adjunct faculty's right to bargain collectively on equal terms with the employer or his/her agents without fear of retaliation.
- K. Adequate opportunities for faculty promotions and range adjustments, and professional staff performance based promotions which reflect contributions designed to recognize, reward, and encourage excellence, as well as growth in one's professional life.

Section 3. To improve instruction in institutions of higher learning.

Section 4. To eliminate all forms of unfair discrimination such as those which violate the contract and national and state laws.

Section 5. To cooperate with organized labor for the purpose of advancing democratic concepts through education at all levels.

ARTICLE III - Membership

Section 1. All teaching faculty, librarian faculty, professional staff, full-time, one-half time or greater, and adjunct faculty who are non-managerial personnel, are eligible for membership in the Union.

Section 2. Members and Agency Fee Payers:

- A. Eligible personnel become full members when they pay 100% of the dues requirement.
- B. Those who are eligible but do not choose to be members shall be known as agency fee payers and are legally obligated to pay 85% of the required dues. Although agency fee payers are not eligible to hold office, serve on standing or ad hoc committees, and or vote on any Local issues, they are entitled to all other rights and benefits due 100% members. In compliance with the Constitution of the Council of New Jersey State College Locals (CNJSCL), only 100% dues paying members are eligible to vote on the Master Contract.

Section 3. Supervisory personnel with the rank of Assistant Dean or above shall not obtain membership. Members who are promoted to the rank of Assistant Dean or above automatically are removed from membership.

Section 4. Associate membership without the right to vote or hold office shall be open to retired members. Dues for associate members shall be determined by the National AFT. Associate members will be eligible to participate in benefit programs such as insurance, travel, and discount buying services. Local 1796 will encourage and assist the establishment of a chartered organization of retired members, which then will be entitled to representation and vote at the National AFT convention.

Section 5. Members on unpaid leave may maintain their membership with full membership rights by paying such dues as established.

Section 6. No discrimination shall be shown toward individual members or applicants for membership because of disability, race, creed, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, marital status, academic discipline, social, political, or economic status, beliefs, or activities, nor shall there be any other forms of unfair discrimination.

Section 7. A member may be expelled for acts detrimental to the Union upon presentation of written charges signed by at least 1/4 of the total general membership and approved by at least 3/4 of the General and Executive/Local Council. The member shall have the right to appeal the decision to the general membership at the following general membership meeting and shall be reinstated with full rights if a majority of the members present vote to reinstate.

Section 8. The Union shall adopt procedures for agency fee payers to object during a specific time period each year to the expenditure of their portion of such payments for activities or causes of a political nature only incidentally related to collective bargaining. Agency Fee Payers may not object to expenditures of their portion of such payments used for collective bargaining including, but not limited to, negotiating, organizing, servicing, educational research, and union administration. That portion of such fees spent by the union, local, state and national level for the above described purposes will be determined in each fiscal year by the respective chief fiscal policy-making body, and rebate of a prorated portion of these where there are co-officers). The Chair of the Elections Committee, or his/her designee, will attend the Executive Board meeting at which the Board discusses the candidates it will be proposing. At the March General and Executive/Local Council meeting, the Elections Committee shall present the nominees to the Local Council for approval.

2. Nominations may be made from the floor. Persons nominated from the floor must secure the endorsement of at least five people who have been members for at least 30 days on petitions to be presented to the Elections Committee within 10 days after the March meeting.

3. At the April election meeting if no nomination is offered in opposition to a candidate under the procedure specified in Article IV, Section 3A, the Recording Secretary shall cast one ballot for the nominee presented and he or she shall be deemed elected.

4. When there are contested elections, the Elections Committee will go before the General and Executive/Local Council at the April meeting to determine if the election should be held electronically or by mail. The Elections Committee, assisted by the Administrative Assistant, shall distribute an electronic or mail ballot to all those who have been Union members for at least 30 days in a manner determined by the Elections Committee. The Elections Committee will compile the results and report them to the members immediately. Candidates receiving the most votes cast for the positions shall be declared elected and shall take office immediately. The term of office will be two years.

B. Department and Library Faculty Representatives:

1. It shall be the duty of the Elections Committee, assisted by the Administrative Assistant, to request from the departments and library faculty that they submit the names of their representatives to the Local Council by the April meeting. Names should be submitted to the Chair of the Elections Committee. Elections shall be conducted under department or library by-laws. The Library faculty shall be entitled to two representatives to the Local Council. Each academic department shall be entitled to one representative. Chairpersons and co-chairpersons of Standing Committees are not automatically deemed as Department or Library Faculty Representatives and accordingly the Local Council may have more than one faculty member from a department or more than two members from the library. Terms shall commence at the May meeting and shall be one year.

C. Professional Staff Representatives:

1. It shall be the duty of the Elections Committee, assisted by the Administrative Assistant, to oversee the nomination of three (3) Professional Staff who have been members for 30 days. The call for nominations shall allow for self nomination or nomination by Professional Staff who have been members for 30 days. Written nominations should be sent to the Chairperson of the Elections Committee. The Chairperson of the Elections Committee will confirm the nomination in writing. A week should be permitted for the first round of nominations. A second notice shall then be sent by the Elections Committee again calling for nominations or withdrawals. Written nominations should be sent to the Chairperson of the Elections Committee. The Chairperson of the Elections Committee will confirm the nomination in writing. A week should be permitted for the second round of nominations.

2. If there are three or fewer nominees for Professional Staff Representatives, the Chairperson of the Elections Committee shall notify the President of their nominations at the following General and Executive/Local Council meeting. At the election meeting, the Recording Secretary shall cast one ballot for the nominee presented, and he or she shall be deemed elected. Terms shall commence at the May meeting and shall be one year.

3. If there are more than three candidates, the Chairperson of the Elections Committee shall notify the President and conduct a ballot (Art.,IV.,Section 3A). It shall be the duty of the Elections Committee to oversee the election of three (3)

Professional Staff Representatives to the Local Council. When there are contested elections, the Elections Committee will go before the General and Executive/Local Council at the April meeting to determine if the election should be held electronically or by mail. The Elections Committee, assisted by the Administrative Assistant, shall distribute an electronic or mail ballot to all those who have been professional staff members for at least 30 days in a manner determined by the Elections Committee. The Elections Committee will compile the results and report them to the members immediately. Candidates receiving the most votes cast for the Professional Staff Representatives shall be declared elected and shall take office immediately.

D. Adjunct Faculty Representatives

1. It shall be the duty of the Elections Committee, assisted by the Administrative Assistant, to oversee the nomination of two (2) adjunct faculty who have been members for 30 days. The call for nominations shall allow for self nomination or nomination by adjunct faculty who have been members for 30 days. Written nominations should be sent to the Chairperson of the Elections Committee. The Chairperson of the Elections Committee will confirm the nomination in writing. A week should be permitted for the first round of nominations. A second notice shall then be sent by the Elections Committee calling for nominations or withdrawals. Written nominations should be sent to the Chairperson of the Elections Committee. The Chairperson of the Elections Committee will confirm the nomination in writing. A week should be permitted for the second round of nominations.

2. If there are two or fewer nominees for Adjunct Faculty Representatives the Chairperson of the Elections Committee shall notify the President of their elections at the meeting. At the election meeting, the Recording Secretary shall cast one ballot for the nominees presented, and the nominees shall be deemed elected. Terms shall commence at the May meeting and shall be one year.

ARTICLE IV - Executive Board, Local Council and Elections

3. If there are more than two candidates the Chairperson of the Elections Committee shall notify the President and conduct a ballot. (Art.,IV.,Section 3A). It shall be the duty of the Elections Committee to oversee the election of two (2) Adjunct Faculty Representatives to the Local Council. When there are contested elections, the Elections Committee will go before the General and Executive/Local Council at the April meeting to determine if the election should be held electronically or by mail. The Elections Committee, assisted by the Administrative Assistant, shall distribute an electronic or mail ballot to all those who have been adjunct faculty members for at least 30 days in a manner determined by the Elections Committee. The Elections Committee will compile the results and report them to the members immediately. Candidates receiving the most votes cast for the Adjunct Faculty Representatives shall be declared elected and shall take office immediately.

Section 4. Vacancies in any office shall be filled by candidates recommended by the Executive Board, subject to ratification at the first General and Executive/Local Council meeting that follows such action. Notice that ratification will be considered shall appear in an agenda distributed in advance of the meeting.

Section 5. Officers of the Union shall be required to have been a member of the Union for a period of six months prior to nomination.
